An Injury To One - Is An Injury To All!

EVERY WORKER NEEDS A UNION!

The Industrial Workers of the World in Ireland will this month launch a national campaign to encourage workers to unionise.

The 'Every Worker Needs A Union' campaign wants to encourage workers to stand up for their rights within the workplace by joining the union. The IWW does provide training and support for workers on how they can get active and unionise their place of work. As a union, the IWW believes that 'EVERY WORKERS NEEDS A UNION'. As part of the campaign over the coming months, we will be taking that conversation to the streets and to places of work.

A series of campaign talks and information stalls are already being scheduled across the country by members. It doesn't matter what type of work you do, if you have a boss or a manager, then you need the protection and solidarity of a union to defend your rights at work.

We want to help encourage workers to join the union, as well as encourage other workers to unionise where they work and to take part in training, in an effort to help support one another by protecting our rights at work.

The IWW is different to other unions. We are a union that is run by and for workers themselves.

We are not a service union with paid officials and paid activists, that offers insurance or discounts in shops and whose day-to-day practices are nothing short of being anti-union and anti-worker.

As an independent union we work collectively to support and train each other in how best we can fight back.

We help each other to organise effectively at work and to learn how to defend each other and our rights from managers and bosses who make workers lives hell.

If you or a friend are struggling with an issue at work, need support and advice, or want to learn how to organise your workplace, then get in touch and join us.

FOYLE PRIDE: NO PRIDE IN GENOCIDE!

Members of the Industrial Workers of the World in Derry took part in this year's Foyle Pride celebrations. The fact that Foyle Pride week of events is an independent Pride event is in itself a cause for celebration.

A spokesperson for the IWW in Derry commented during today's Pride Parade stating, "As a union, we feel that it's so important that unions are on the streets with thousands of other workers and their families celebrating Foyle Pride.

"We would like to congratulate the organisers for the work involved in putting this event together each year. Foyle Pride remains independent and free from the clutches of private corporations, the politicians and the cops. This is also an important factor in celebrating Pride and ensuring that it continues as a protest.

DUBLIN MARCH FOR PALESTINE

1pm SAT 6 SEPTEMBER
March from US Embassy to Dept Foreign Affairs

As the Dáil gets ready to reconvene, join the IPSC and others in regional protests across Ireland as we let the government know that we haven't gone away. We are still demanding SANCTIONS NOW to help end the Gaza genocide and to support freedom, justice and equality for the Palestinian people. Enact the OTB | Arms Embargo Now | Stop CBI Funding Genocide | US Military Out of Shannon

IRELAND PALESTINE SOLIDARITY CAMPAIGN

"You have to remember that Foyle Pride has a special place in radical queer history and politics throughout Ireland.

"As a union, we're here with many other union activists to celebrate that Pride is a vehicle of protest on the streets. Besides raising awareness of the ongoing struggles of our LGBTQIA+ brothers and sisters, it has been important to also raise the flag of Palestine, an international symbol of resistance against Zionism. It's vital for each of us to ensure that their struggle is not forgotten on a day such as this. Pride is a cause for celebration but also of protest and resistance."
