ACTION

An Injury To One - Is An Injury To All!

SOLIDARITY WITH WORKERS IN PALESTINE END THE OCCUPATION!

Members of the Industrial Workers of the World participated in yet another solidarity action with the people of Palestine at Dublin Port.

The temporary blockade of Dublin Port came despite the recent uneasiness surrounding the Trump-designed 'ceasefire' in Gaza.

As the crowd's dispersed, a spokesperson for the IWW Dublin group said, "For many looking in on the so-called ceasefire in Palestine, the atrocities continue for the people of Palestine. Little or nothing has actually changed. With that being the case, our solidarity actions must continue, which is why we are here again today at Dublin Port."

"For the majority here today, for those of us who have taken part, we strongly believe that no one should remain silent while the Zionist terror continues to inflict its relentless oppression throughout Palestine."

At a previous action to blockade Dublin Port, many witnessed first hand the brutality of An Garda Síochána towards Palestinian supporters. Several were arrested by excessive force while many others had been pepper-sprayed in an attempt to break up the peaceful solidarity action.

This time around, activists once again conducted themselves with dignity, whilst learning from previous actions by putting in place first-aid volunteers to support fellow activists on the ground, of which IWW members took participated in.

Amazingly, guards stopped-and-searched volunteers under drugs legislation, interrogating them about the "Sodium Chloride" (i.e. salt) listed in the ingredients of their saline solution.

They questioned the need for first-aiders to bring saline solution for treating pepper-spray, as if guards had not been trigger-happy with the pepper-spray at previous port actions!

VICTORY IN TECH WORKERS UNFAIR DISMISSAL!

Yet another victory for our members. We can now confirm that a recent case taken to the Workplace Relations Commission (WRC) Ireland, has once again resulted in a resounding victory for our fellow worker.

A Wobblie tech worker, who had challenged their former employer by taking an unfair dismissal case to the WRC.

Speaking following the recent victory, the fellow worker stated "Without my trade union I wouldn't have had a chance, and walked away with nothing. But thanks to the IWW, I won!"

Remember, Tech Workers have rights at work. It's time to break down the isolation, help unionise your workplace and fight back against the bosses together!

CASEWORK VICTORY!

“Without my trade union I wouldn't have had a chance, and walked away with nothing. But thanks to the IWW, I won!”

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS OF THE WORLD
IRELAND

The victory comes as members of the IWW Ireland branch embark on a national campaign across the country to help highlight the union and to encourage union membership.

The IWW Ireland campaign statement issued last month stated: 'The Industrial Workers of the World (IWW) believes that EVERY WORKER NEEDS A UNION!'

'Whether you are employed in a call centre, a factory or a retail shop, a delivery driver or a cleaner, a hospitality or care worker: if you have a boss or a manager then you need the protection and solidarity of a union to defend your rights at work.'

A union is a group of workers who have come together to support one another and to protect their rights at work, as well as their pay and working conditions.

EVERY WORKER NEEDS A UNION

The IWW Ireland branch rolling out a information campaign to help highlight the need for all workers to unionise their place of work.

As a union, the IWW offer workers the training required to support and assist you to unionise and build a union within your place of employment.

IWW members will be holding regular information stalls throughout the country to encourage workers to join the union, to take part in essential training that will help guide members to build a union in your workplace and defend your rights as workers.

IWW believes that EVERY WORKER NEEDS A UNION!

Whether you are employed in a call centre, a factory or a retail shop, a delivery driver or a cleaner, a hospitality or care worker:

if you have a boss or a manager then you need the protection and solidarity of a union to defend your rights at work.

A union is a group of workers who have come together to support one another and to protect their rights at work, as well as their pay and working conditions.

If you are a member or supporter of the union and would like to help out with the campaign, then please come along to the next advertised information stall near you. Please see our website or social media channels for more info.

If you are a member and would like to create an information stall in your area then all you have to do is drop us and email for a FREE campaign information pack to help create your own IWW stall.
